

PARTNERSHIP With Parents

We ask that all parents and volunteers adhere to Enlightium Prep dress code guidelines when coming on campus, which include fieldtrips, volunteering, and drop-off/pickup times. We call on parents to partner with us in cultivating habits of modesty and propriety, teaching students to present themselves in a way that honors God and expresses our biblical values.

Please review the Family Handbook (pg 16) for additional details and enforcement guidelines.

DRESS CODE

Guidelines

<https://spokane.enlightiumprep.com>

At Enlightium Prep, our dress code is guided by biblical values of modesty in honor of God. Our dress is an important expression of our honor to God, ourselves, and others as we are created with dignity and called to Christ's likeness (1 Cor. 10:31; Rom. 13:14; Phil. 2:4).

DRESS CODE STANDARDS

Tops: must cover the shoulders, chest, and midsection at all times (test by reaching arms above head; if the shirt shows belly, do not wear it). Graphic prints or slogans must not go against our school's faith and values.

Bottoms: must be free of rips, frays, or distressed styling. Pants must reach the ankle, shorts must reach the top of the knee.

Dresses and skirts: must be at least knee length, even if worn with leggings. Bike shorts or leggings must be worn under skirts and dresses.

Fit: tops and bottoms must be appropriately sized, not skintight or excessively loose, ensuring a neat appearance.

Footwear: Closed-toe shoes that are appropriate for learning and movement. During early fall and late spring, secure sandals with heel strap and closed toe may also be worn. Slippers, high heels, and other unsafe footwear are not permitted.

Weather: Jackets, mittens, boots, hats as needed (2 sets are best for cold, wet conditions).
